Policy Statement for creating an eco-system for innovations and other initiatives for creation and transfer of knowledge:

AKSSM Shevgaon recognizes the importance of fostering an eco-system for innovations and other initiatives that promote the creation and transfer of knowledge. In order to achieve this goal, the college is committed to creating a culture that encourages and supports innovative ideas and experimentation.

Participative Efforts:

The college will establish participative efforts such as brain storming and think tank sessions to identify possible and needed innovations in education. These sessions will be open to faculty members, students, alumni, and education professionals in the community.

Encouragement to Novel Ideas:

The college will encourage and support the development of novel ideas related to education. Faculty members, students, and staff will be encouraged to explore new teaching and learning strategies, technologies, and methodologies. The college will recognize and reward innovative ideas and initiatives.

Official Approval and Support:

The college will provide official approval and support for innovative try-outs that have potential to benefit education. This includes providing resources and funding for innovative projects, facilitating access to technology and equipment, and connecting faculty and students with industry partners and experts.

Material and Procedural Supports:

The college will provide material and procedural supports for innovative initiatives that aim to create and transfer knowledge. This includes providing access to research databases and libraries, developing innovative and relevant curriculum, establishing collaborative learning communities, and hosting educational research symposiums.

The college will continuously monitor and evaluate the effectiveness of its ecosystem for innovations and other initiatives for creation and transfer of knowledge. The college will regularly review and update its policies and initiatives to ensure that they align with the needs and goals of the institution and the wider community.
