

Physical Facility

The institution continuously strives to create and enhance the infrastructure in the teaching- learning process. Infrastructure is very important from a college point of view in teaching and learning. An important policy of the organization is to create and enhance infrastructure. Infrastructural facilities it is seriously connected from the point of view of the college. Infrastructural facilities are very important for fostering talent, team spirit, unity, brotherhood, and social cohesion, innovation among students, meeting global challenges and pioneering the modern Indian vision. At the beginning of the academic year, additions to the existing infrastructure are made to assess the need for up gradation. It reviews all the members, department heads, lab technicians and administrators followed by curriculum requirements, computer- student ratio, and budget allocation work. Plans before the committee all the requirements regarding the present equipment condition and student complaints, time table, classrooms, laboratories, furniture. Optimum deployment of infrastructure is ensured through practice. Effective utilization of infrastructure is ensured through adequate deployment of workshops, awareness programs, training programs etc. for new usage. Adequate measures are ensured by encouraging innovative teaching. The physical facilities available in the teaching method are regularly used well. Hours, Certificate Courses, Academic Courses Other Activities Parent Teacher Meetings, Training Classes, Meetings, Seminars, Conferences etc. All examinations of the course are held in the college itself. The library department works to promote the learning process. Teaching resources include library essential resources and infrastructure includes Auxiliary facilities include a canteen. Amenities include safe drinking water, toilets and power generators.

Physical Fitness Center

AKSSM Shevgaon was established in 2006. The campus area of the college is 5100 Sq. Miter. The college has facilities for cultural activities such as yoga, sports, exercise school, yoga center auditorium. Sports are an integral part of the curriculum. Along with mental development, physical development is very important. Various sports facilities and materials are provided to the students for physical development. The college is committed to creating a balanced environment of academic, cultural and sports activities in the campus for the all- round personality development of its students. Various sports competitions are organized in the college. Organizing various sports competitions helps to develop team spirit in students. Sports help students to increase their physical abilities and lead a healthy life. Meritorious students are honored with medals, trophies and certificates. This creates motivation in many students. MRCET's philosophy is to support competitive instruction and the best elements. Students are encouraged to participate in inter- college sports in the college. All students are entertained with opportunities to participate in teams and excel. All the equipment materials required for sports are provided to the students from time to time. Competitions are organized by the college. Our college has a comprehensive vision of all- round personality for the student. Training and playing together is the fastest way to friendship. The physical education department of the college is equipped with various facilities. The college has indoor and outdoor sports facilities. Chess, carom, table tennis, cricket ground, kho-kho ground, hooliball ground running track, football ground as outdoor sports is also a modern gymnasium. Student's physical strength and the physical education director of the college, Mr. Bhagwan Baraskar, is working to develop fitness. Students participate in competitions organized by other colleges and the university. At the same time, a yoga center is run in the college. Students and professors do yoga.